

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. This competition is being organised by the National Center for Learning Welsh.
2. The competition is open to people who are learning Welsh at all levels of learning - with the National Center for Learning Welsh and its course providers, or with other providers.
3. Candidates must write a Welsh postcard for their holiday (imaginary or 'real').
4. The card must be posted in an envelope to the Welsh Language Crew, National Center for Learning Welsh, College Road, Carmarthen SA31 3EP, including learner contact details (telephone number or email address).
5. The applicants are responsible for paying to post the application; the Center is not responsible for any lost entries. The Center will not return any applications.
6. Applications should not include defamatory, obscene, abusive, or other inappropriate material. Entries must be suitable for online publication by the Center.
7. Applicants retain copyright in their applications but grant the Center a non-exclusive, royalty-free license in perpetuity to publish online and post the application on any platforms.
8. By submitting the postcard, the applicant agrees that the Center may, in its sole discretion, modify, shorten or translate the application.
9. The cards will be judged by the Centre's teaching staff; three winners will be offered a free one-year course, which begins in September 2022.
10. The Centre's decision is final.
11. The Center reserves the right to disqualify any application in breach of any of these Terms and Conditions, or to withhold an award if it considers that the applications reach the required standard.
12. The Center reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions or to cancel the competition at any time if it considers it necessary to do so, or if circumstances arise beyond their control.
13. The deadline is 31 August 2022.
